Our friend H. Bledsoe, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, furnishes us with a few items of interest, obtained during his last trip to Walla Walla.

"The excitement concerning the Coeur d'Alene mines at Walla Walla, and indeed throughout the top notch—various reports and rumors were in circulation, as regards the extent and richness of the mines; but from the best information that could be obtained, the mines cannot be compared to Idaho. They are situated about 350 miles from Walla Walla and 35 miles from the Old Mission of Coeur d'Alene.

The Columbia river was steadily on the rise, reaching near high water mark of last year.

A stage passenger was robbed at Warm Spring Station, on Thomas & Ruckle's new road across the Blue Mountains, on the evening of June 13th, by the name of J. C. Levy, (a townsman of ours,) out of the sum of seventy-five ounces gold dust. A man by the name of Harris was arrested on suspicion and taken to Walla Walla for trial. The roads are in very good condition across the Blue Mountains—stages running the entire distance to the Basin, excepting a few miles outside of Placerville.

The great Snake river was falling as also the Payette. Grass is better than ever known on the road.

The Sheriff of Umatilla county, who is laying at the Express Ranch, Burnt river, was recovering from his dangerous wound.—Idaho World.

OUR NATIONAL SECURITIES THEIR STYLE AND CHARACTER.

1. The "Seven-thirties" represent a Currency Loan, having three years to run, then convertible into a gold interest 6 per cent. stock having 20 years to run, but with the right reserved to the Government of paying off the loan, in Gold, at any time after five years. The term "Seven-thirties" is derived from the rate of interest which these three years convertible notes bear, to wit: two cents per day on each $100, or for 365 days $7 30 on each $100.

2. The term "Five-twenties" is applied to the 6 per cent. Gold-bearing Bonds of the United States, to which twenty years half-yearly Coupons are attached, but which may be paid off, in gold, by the Government, on due notice to the holders, at any time after five years, in the not improbable event the Government should be offered the money on a new loan at a cheaper rate than 6 per cent.

3. The term "Ten-forties" is applied to the 5 per cent. Gold-bearing Bonds of the United States, to which half-yearly Coupons are attached for 40 years, but which may be paid off in Gold, on notice to the holders, at any time after ten years, in the possible event the Government should be offered the money on a new loan at a less rate of interest than 5 per cent.

4. The long or unconditional 6 per cent. Gold-bearing Loan, known as the 6 per cents of 1881, cannot be redeemed by the Government at all, except by purchase, until after the year 1881, making this the most desirable of all the United States Loans as a permanent investment.

5. The present outstanding totals of each of the above loans are as follows:

1—Seven-thirties	$600,000,000
2—Five-twenties	596 545,900
3—Ten-Forties	178,779,100
4—Taxes of Eighty-one	281,561,400
Total	$1 650,877,400
Interest in Currency on $600 000 000
Interest in Gold on 1,650,877,400—$1,650,877,400

In addition to the gold interest stocks here classified, there is outstanding $48,868,891 of the old funded 5 and 6 per cents of the United States, upon which the interest is paid in gold, and the principal of which will be redeemed in gold when due.

6. The terms "Greenbacks" and "Legal Tenders" are convertible. All the greenbacks are legal tender; but $433,160,569 are of this ordinary circulation, free of interest, and $226,000,000 bear simple compound interest, payable on the maturity of the notes, most of them 6 per cents, payable three years after 1865, the interest compounded in a table on the back of the notes, viz: please [illegible]

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 10, 1865

The Rottenness of Mormon Courts.

We have had more than one occasion to allude to the rottenness and corruption of the Mormon courts' of Utah under the jurisdiction of Church Leaders.

During the week just past; another instance of the iniquity and wholly unjust and unlawful proceedings therewith connected have been brought to light.

A sergeant of the Nev. Cav. Vols., while in Salt Lake City on the "Fourth" feeling more than usually patriotic and having indulged in stimulants somewhat too freely, was invited by a friend to go to his room and occupy his bed for a while. The sergeant at once availed himself of the kind offer and repaired to the house of his friend.

It seems that owing to the degree of intoxication under which he was laboring, he by some means stumbled against the wrong door, it being the entrance to the apartments of the family where his friend was boarding. The gentleman of the house not knowing any of the circumstances, called a Policeman to remove the sergeant, and on the approach of the Policeman, the sergeant aroused himself jumped up and ran, but was in a short time captured and lodged in the Police Station. On the same evening, or the following morning the charge of Burglary was preferred against the sergeant and he was placed under $500 bonds to appear at the next term of the Supreme Court. There being no one appearing as his bail for this amount, it was gradually reduced from time to time to $100. On hearing this, a gentleman from Camp appeared on Saturday last, for the purpose of procuring the release of the sergeant by paying the required sum. $100, for his appearance at the next Court; when he was informed by the District Attorney, that by paying the sum of $50, the sergeant would be released and that he (the District Attorney) would enter a nolle prosequi at the next court and have the case dismissed, at the same time remarking that this stipulated sum was exacted to defray the expenses of the court this far. The justice, law or equity in this case, we cannot see, we leave it to the judgement of our numerous readers.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

New York, June 21.

The Herald's Charleston correspondent says: The delegation from South Carolina to Washington whose arrival was announced yesterday, will ask for the early appointment of a provisional governor for that State. Their first choice for this position is ex-Governor Aiken; second, Gen. Gurney, Post Commandant at Charleston.

The late rebel Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Treholm, has been arrested at Columbia, taken to Charleston and placed in confinement.

Charleston had again assumed a business like aspect. The work of rebuilding a portion of the city destroyed during the war is in active progress. Wholesale merchants are rapidly disposing of their stocks. Goods purchased from the inferior are coming in in large numbers, and a heavy mortality is prevailing among the negroes in Charleston.

It is said that there is more than 100,000 bales of cotton along the line of railroad between Charleston and Columbia, awaiting the completion of the line, to be forwardod to market.

Washington, June 20.

Hon. James Johnson, the newly appointed provisional Governor of Georgia, left this city this evening, for his State. Those who have met Governor Johnson here are much pleased with his views on the subject of reconstruction in the South. He takes the strongest Union grounds, and will at once proceed to inform the people of Georgia what their true condition is and what they must do to organize a local government.

Judge Wm. F. Nording and Fox, commissioners for South Carolina, arrived here from Charleston, and report the people of that city, notwithstanding the presumed scarcity of money, paid into the United States Treasury over $90,000, on account of district taxes, for which they were in arrears.

Orders have been issued reducing the Mississippi squadron to fifteen vessels. Acting Rear Admiral S. P. Lee will remain in command. Those gunboats left at the mouth of Red river, all mortar vessels, and all ironclads, except the Tennessee and Missouri, are ordered to Memphis, and will at once be put out of commission. All the other vessels now in the squadron will be sent to Mound City, and will also be put out of commission.

Among the applications for pardon to-day was Bishop Lynch, the Catholic Bishop of Charleston, noted heretofore for his bitter and most virulent opposition to the Government and Union. The petition was drawn up and signed by Bishop Spaulding, of Baltimore, and a Bishop of Buffalo. The tone of the petition is exceedingly humble and penitent.

Cincinnati, June 21st.

A Nashville dispatch to the Gazette, says: General Thomas has issued an order, allowing all persons sent north of the Ohio river to remain during the war, to return, also abolishing the pass system over all roads and rivers in the Department.

General Wilson telegraphs to the Government that he has issued to the poor of Atlanta, during the last seven days, one hundred thousand pounds of meat and flour. The people in ten adjacent counties are in a starving condition and relief must be extended to 30,000 people.

Washington, June 21st.

Edmund Raffin, of Va., who fired the first gun on Sumter, committed suicide near Richmond on Saturday last, by blowing his head off with a gun. A memorandum found among his papers, says the Richmond Republic, stating, he couldn't live under the Government of the United States, that he preferred death to doing so.

Philadelphia, June 21st.

A special from Washington announces the death of Mrs. Wm. H. Seward, wife of the Secretary of State.

New York, June 21st.

Dr. Mackey, the well known Charleston Unionist, pronounces the delegation has just arrived from this city, to confer with the President, on the subject of the employment of freedmen in South Carolina, composed entirely of original secessionists and rebels throughout the war. He regards their coming as impudent and an insult to the United States.

Washington, July 21st.

The Young Men's Christian Association have purchased Ford's Theater, paying $100,000 for it.

New York, July 21st.

Secretary Stanton's report of operations in his department for the last year of the war is published, from which it appears, there were forwarded to the field 489,626 soldiers, and mustered out and discharged, 268,114. Over 200 flags were captured from the rebels. There were 102,000 colored troops in the service.

The Herald's Charleston correspondent says, the delegation from South Carolina, which arrived at Washington yesterday, having instructions to represent to President Johnson the expediency of establishing an efficient plan, whereby the relations between the freedmen of the State and their employers in regard to labor and wages can be satisfactory arranged, they profess a feeling toward the freedmen, that they may employ one half of their crops as a recompense for their labor; but unless they have guarantee that the labor shall be continuous, it would be of no use to commence the crops. Another idea that if late slaves are allowed to choose their employers and occupations, they will inevitably select the corn planting as the easiest work, to a great decrease of cotton and rice crops. Members of this delegation accept the abolishing of slavery, declaring, it's really the slave owners who have secured freedom by getting rid of their slaves. They express their determination to be loyal to the Union in the future and own they've failed in their great undertaking and think they were right in seceding, but admit, that they may have erred.

The same correspondent says Trenholm, Rebel Secretary of Treasury went to Columbia and reported to our commander that he was ready to deliver himself up at any time. He then led off with a zeal to carry into effect the Military emancipation orders, and was the first to contract with his freed men, several hundred in number, not one of whom had left him. He, before the war, was a gradual emancipationist. His ready adoption of the Government views, and his example in Columbia, has the most salutary effect in that region. Subsequently an order was received from General Hatch for his arrest. The order was promptly obeyed and Trenholm was brought under parole to Orangeburg in his own carriage and proceeded thence by rail to Charleston where he was lodged in jail. In conversation with his son in law, he told me, Trenholm was forced to take the position of Secretary of Treasury, under Jeff Davis and he declined twice and was at Richmond preemptorily ordered to report at Richmond by Jeff, in following dispatch: Your services are needed, report here immediately.

Washington, June 23d.

The Secretary of the navy in a General order announces to the navy and Marine corps the death of Admiral Dupont, after an honorable career of nearly fifty years in the service of his country. The order futher says this offier was distinguished for his ability and acquirements in his profession, which he filled with credit. In many important positions both ashore and afloat he was especially distinguished for his decision and the splendid victory achieved at Port Royal S. C. on the 7th of Nov. 1861, for which he received the thanks of Congress, as a recognition of his distinguished services. As a mark of respect to his memory it is hereby directed that at the Navy yard of Philadelphia, flags be hoisted at half-mast tomorrow, and continue so until sunset of the day after his burial, on which day at noon thirteen minute guns will be fired; and at all other navy yards flags will be hoisted at half-mast on through the day after the receipt of this order and thirteen minute guns fired at noon.

Washington, June 23.

The Navy Department have just received official dispatches from Admiral Thatcher, dated Galveston 8th, reporting that on the 1st of this month Gen. Brown, commanding the United States forces, occupied and garrisoned Brownsville on the 2d of June. The rebel Gens. Kirby Smith and Magruder met him in the harbor of Galveston. Gen. A. J. Smith representing Maj. General Canby, and Gen. Kirby Smith, then and there signed the terms of surrender previously agreed upon at New Orleans on the 5th of June. Full formal possession of Galveston was delivered to the United States forces, and a flag of the Union raised on the 8th of June. Admiral Thatcher went ashore and was cordially received by the rebel naval and military authorities, who requested a part of the United States naval force to remain there for their protection. Galveston is, by this time, strongly guarded by United States forces, sent forward by Gen. Canby. General Sheridan is also probably there in position.

(Signed) STANTON.

The President, to day, issued a proclamation raising the blockade west of the Mississippi, declaring all ports open to foreign commerce the first of July next, on terms set forth in the proclamation of the 22d of May last. He says: It is to be understood, however, that the blockade rescinded was international leisure, for the purpose of proclaiming the sovereign right of the United States; the greater or less subversion of civil authority in the region to which it applied, and impracticability of at once restoring that in due efficiency, may for a season make it advisable to empty the army and navy of the United States towards carrying the law into effect.

Washington, June 23d.

The President has directed Hon. W. P. Dole, Commissioner of Indian affairs to proceed to the Indian country to effect important treaties with the hostile and peaceable Indians. In his instructions to Mr. Dole, the President says, he deems the present a time for a renewal of efforts to press upon Indians the pressing necessity of abandoning their wild roving habits and adopting more peaceful and industrious arts of civilized life. That there is no longer any region of Territory, left within the United States, where their rude habits or mode of life can prevail as formerly. That they are being pressed and hemmed in on every side by advancing settlements of an adventurous and enterprising people. That they must therefore adapt themselves to a new order of things, live in peace among themselves and their white neighbors, or they must perish; that the policy of settling them upon suitable reservations, where they may with the aid and friendship of the Government, be able to subsist themselves by acriculture and other industrious pursuits, is left without alternative. Your experience in treating with Indians and familiarity with their character seem to point you out the proper officer of the Indian department to visit the various tribes in the Territories, and enter into such treaties with them as will best secure the permanent tranquility of our borders, and promote their future welfare and prosperity. Commanders of the various military districts have been instructed to co-operate with Mr. Dole and render him all assistance he may require.

Mr. Dole has been unwell for several days but is now discharging the duties of his office, and will soon be able to leave for the west.

Over fifty gunboats and other vessels composing a portion of the Miss. squadron are to be sold at antion, at Mound City, Ills., August the 17th.

New York, June 24th.

The Tribune's Montreal correspondent says Gen. Dix goes to Quebec on a visit to Governor General of Canada, to inform him that abuses of right of asylum so long practiced by the Canadian Government in behalf of rebel agents must be reformed.

The Jacksonville Florida Union, of the 17th, near Gainesville, Florida, consisted of two boxes and one trunk, containing many important private letters and papers. The wagon seems to have been abandoned by the flying party on learning of Davis' capture.

New York, June 26th.

The Herald's Washington special has the following: Conway's mission was successful in the matter of the majority of the Richmond Ambulance Committee, but failed in a few individuals belonging to the organization and in behalf of General Echols and St. John. The President asked for the names embraced in the ambulance committee and inquired particularly who and where it included Joe Anderson of the Tredgar works. When 'twas handed him, he scanned it carefully and pardoned such as were not especially under the law. Considerable efforts are being made by the Union men of Alabama to have the President pardon L. B. Walker, of Huntsville, the first rebel secretary of war. He retired from that position, a Brigadier General in '61, as they assert, because he was not sufficiently truckling to Jeff. Davis and was denied any command commensurate with his rank until he threw up his command and left the service. His friends claim for him, that he always opposed east Tennesse and volunteered to defend Brownlow and others. It is understood that Governor Pierpont, of Va., declines to sign any more recommendations for pardon, as he says proper attention has not been accorded to recommendations he has already made. He recommended pardon of men like Anderson, of the Tredgar works, who have made large fortunes out of the rebel government, during the war, now desire his pardon that they may enjoy the fruits of their labors in behalf of the rebellion. President Johnson does not realize the benefit to the Union cause, to be deceived from the promiscious release of such men from the pains and penalties which their acts have exposed them, whereat the Governor is much exercised.

New York, June 26th.

The Times special says, the rebel Senator Cornett, of Ky., has gone to that State under a military guard, to be turned over to the civil authorities for trial or release as the civil Government may deem proper.

The Tribune's Washington special says, the remaining corps of the army of the Potomac will probably be consolidated into one division each.

The Herald's Richmond correspondent says, Mr. Ould, late rebel exchange commissioner and Major Carrington, one of his associates, were released from Libby prison on parole, where they were confined, charged with taking part of the notorious misappropriation of money and comforts sent to imprisoned Union soldiers, by friends at the north. It appears that Ould and Carrington did not take part in these shameful transactions; the infamous tyrant over our prisoners of war, who escaped some time since, and was retaken, is now chained to the wall of his dungeon and being made to taste some of the horrors imposed upon our boys.

JOHN W. FORNEY says: "In four years of war fifty years of prejudice against the negro have been destroyed."

JUDGE MCCURDEY, an associate Supreme Justice for Utah, arrived here a few days ago, as we understand.

WALKER BROTHERS' large train will be here in a few days more, after which look out for announcement of new goods, &c.

HON. MR. ASHLEY is expected to address the members of the Literary Association, at their Hall, on East Temple street, this Monday evening.

IMMIGRANTS, traders, freighters and families, are arriving daily, chiefly destined for Montana, Idaho and California. This makes the streets look very lively.

THE wires convey the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Seward, wife of our Hon. Secretary of State; also the decease of the gallant Naval officer Admiral Dupont, at the advanced age of 50 years.

ADVERTISE in the DAILY VEDETTE, and have your business "known and read of all men" in town and country, as well as in the territories and trading posts of Idaho, Montana and Colorado.

SUP'T REYNOLDS, of the Overland Stage Line, is sanguine that he will be able to start his coaches via the new route to Denver, ("Uinta Valley and Boulder Wagon Road,") by the first of next September at farthest.

ON DIT.—That Hon. Amos Steck, who arrived here yesterday from Denver, has the "documents" in his pocket. While we think the rumor is an idle one, we believe the "Mayor" would make a bully Governor of Mormondom!

THEY say there was a fashionable house at the Theatre, Saturday night; and the playing very interesting; that the dress circle was resplendent, particularly with dashing looking ladies from the States, who are here just now en route for California.

CROWDED OUT.—Items of local miscellaneous character have to give way these days to our voluminous despatches from the States. The latter are coming in on us by the basket-full, and so old, at that, that we have to print only the most interesting of each "batch."

HON. MR. ASHLEY and friends, Capt. Stover, Mr. Nevitt and others of Camp Douglas, paid a visit to Rush Valley, Friday last. The distinguished Chairman of Committee on the Territories was highly pleased with that settlement and its rich silver mines close by.

MARKET REPORT.—After a few more days, when the merchants have got their new goods opened, marked and ready for sale, there will be a brisk trade resumed here. Then, we shall be enabled to note the prices ruling for all kinds and classes of new goods.

A FRESH STOCK of Dry Goods, of all styles, Notions, Boots and Shoes, and an assortment of staple and fashionable goods generally, just opened and for sale, at wholesale and retail, by H. B. THE surest way to prevail on a young couple to get married is to oppose them. Tell them you would rather "see them in their graves," and twelve months after their baby will pass you twice a day in a willow wagon.

PRESIDENT Johnson has declined to receive a coach and span of horses as a gift from sundry place-seekers in New York. He very poperly says that men in high positions should not accept such presents. The millenium is coming.

BILL HEADS, Cards, Checks, Posters, Mining Certificates, &c., executed at the VEDETTE Office in superior style, at lowest figures. Orders received by Mr. Goldrick, Agent, at the Salt Lake House. If left at our branch office at Gray's Bookstore, opposite the telegraph office, they will also be promptly attended to, and jobs delivered.

OPENED THIS DAY!—Messrs. Gilbert & Sons open, this day, with their immense new stocks of Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions, Hardware, Farming Utensils, Boots and Shoes, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, Queensware, Glassware, School Books, Stationary, &c., as per new column advertisement to appear to-morrow morning.

THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.—It is estimated that three hundred millions of the popular loan is held in Germany. So attractive has it become to German financiers, that the Prussian Government has been seriously impeded in its effort to raise money, in competition, and the story of counterfeit bonds was recently invented to check the demand for our securities.

PRICE OF A CAPSIZE.—William Curry has brought suit in the Fourth District Court at San Francisco, against the Fast Freight and Express Company, to recover $20,000 damages for personal injuries sustained by the upsetting of defendants' coach, by reason, as is alleged, of its being overloaded. The accident occurred near Placerville, in October last.

ARRIVED YESTERDAY—from the east, or rather from Colorado, Hon. Amos Steck, ex-Mayor of Denver; A. M. Clark, of the well known banking houses of Clark & Co.; Col. C. B. Dahlgren, son of the Admiral, from New York; Dr. O. H. Conger, formerly of this city; Col. W. S. Postlewait, merchant of Iowa; D. C. Corbitt, Milwaukie, Wis.; Henry Kline, merchant of Denver and Montana; and J. A. Patterson, of Pennsylvania.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer is advocating non-payment of the public debt as one of the leading principles in the reorganization of the Democratic party, or rather it advocates the election to Congress of men who will refuse to sanction taxation for the payment of the debt. Its argument is that when the debt was contracted there were doubts on the part of both debtor and creditor whether it would ever be paid, and therefore failure to pay would be no actual breach of faith. Its sense of honor is satisfied by not disowning the debt, but simply neglecting to pay it—the casuistry of a thorough Jeremy Diddler. Its sympathy for Jeff. Davis, the great repudiator, is easily understood. "A fellow-feeling makes one wondrous kind."

INDIAN ITEMS.—The passengers from Denver by yesterday morning's coach, state that the Indians attacked the rear of one or two large trains unawares, a few days since, near Fort Halleck, and ran off forty to eighty of their mules and horses, killing and scalping a couple of immigrants and one soldier. They also entered Fort Halleck, (where there were but sixteen soldiers, the rest being out as escorts on the line,) and stole a number of horses. When pursued by soldiers and citizens, the Indians turned up in immense strength beyond the hills, so that our party had no show to fight them. Many of the stations in that section have been robbed of all their stock, and the keepers left for Fort Halleck or farther east to Fort Collins. On Tuesday last, while a party of three gentlemen were breakfasting within a mile of Halleck, some Indians approached unawares, and ran off two of the horses, belonging to Messrs. Kline, Ming and Bute. From North Platte Ferry to Cache La Poudre is infested with the savages, so that there will doubtless be little mail or passenger travel for a week or two, until more troops get along from Julesburg and Laramie.

United States 7.30 LOAN. Third Series. $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General subscription Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5.20 Six per Cent. Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10th in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on to July 15th, at the time when the subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receive orders.

Subscription Agent.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

"Just as the bee collects her sweets,
From every shrub and flower she meets,
[illegible] many a source we draw
We give, tho' not the whole as new."

The [illegible] of Northern Victory.

Roll not a drum, sound not a clarion note
Of haughty triumph to the silent sky;
Hushed [illegible] of joy in every throat,
And [illegible] the flash of pride in every eye.

Not with Te Deums loud and high Hosannas
Greet we the awful victory we have won,
But with our arms reversed and lowered banners
We stand—our work is done!

Thy work is done, God, terrible and just,
Who laidst upon our hearts and hands this task,
And kneeling with our foreheads in the dust,
We venture peace to ask.

Bleeding and writhing underneath our sword
Prostrate our brethern lie, Thy fallen foe,
Struck down by Thee, through us, avenging Lord,
By Thy dread hand laid low.

For our own guilt have we been doomed to smite
These, our own kindred, Thy great laws defying—
These, our own flesh and blood, who now unite
In one thing only with us—bravely dying.

Dying how bravely, yet how bitterly!
Not for the better side, but for the worse,
Blindly and madly striving against Thee
For the bad cause where Thou hast set Thy curse,

At whose defeat we may not raise our voice,
Save in the deep thanksgiving of our prayers,
"Lord! we have fought the fight!" But to rejoice
Is ours no more than theirs.

Call back Thy dreadful ministers of wrath
Who have led on our hosts to this great day!
Let our feet halt now in the avenger's path,
And bid our weapons stay.

Upon our land, Freedom's inheritance,
Turn Thou once more the splendor of thy face;
Where nations serving Thee to light advance,
Give us again our place.

Not our bewildering past prosperity,
Not all Thy former ill-requited grace,
But this one boon—O! grant us still to be
The home of Hope to the whole human race.

—Fany Kimble in the "London Spectator."
